

Mental Health Professionals in DC, MD, & VA

ORGANIZATIONAL OVERVIEW: Founded in 2003, Restoration One Ninety-Nine (R1:99) www.R199.org is a 501c3 nonprofit headquartered in Washington, DC. Our mission is to provide a holistic approach to aid in the restoration of those who have experienced complex trauma (military, sexual abuse, DV, trafficking, etc.) so they may live responsibly and productively with purpose, hope, and dignity. Our vision is to serve the greater Washington, DC Metro area as a leading provider of a continuum of therapeutic services and life skill training needed to help restore the lives of the sexually exploited. R1:99 bases its identity in Christ, focusing on the intimacy of a personal relationship with Jesus Christ to transform lives.

POSITION OVERVIEW: Reporting to the Executive Director, R1:99 is looking for mental health professionals who are skilled in trauma modalities to join our growing ministry to survivors of complex trauma. Candidates need to be able to work approximately 7-10 hours a week, be a team players, and desire to move R1:99's mission, vision, and values forward.

Key Responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- Assessment, diagnosis, and treatment
- Individual therapy, group therapy, retreats, & community & national trainings
- Attend a monthly consultation group
- Reporting

Requirements:

- Masters in clinical mental health
- Licensed in DC, MD, or VA- LGPC, LPC, LGSW, LICSW
- Liability insurance
- Experience/training in working with issues of complex trauma
- Enjoy using expressive therapies
- Support R1:99's mission, vision, and values

Qualified candidates should email: Info@R199.org No phone calls please.

- Cover letter
- Resume